

X Forte de Copacabana International Security Conference

“Brazil Emerging in the Global Security Order”

Rio de Janeiro, 29th November 2013, Windsor Atlântica

09:00 Registration

09:30 Welcome

- Felix Dane, Representative of the Konrad Adenauer Foundation (KAS) in Brazil, Germany
- Marcos Castrioto de Azambuja, Ambassador, Member of the Board of Trustees of the Brazilian Center for International Relations (CEBRI), Brazil
- Ana Paula Zacarias, Ambassador, Head of the Delegation of the European Union in Brazil, EU

10:00 Keynote Speeches - “The Evolving Global Security Order”

- In what direction is the Global Security Order evolving
 - What role do the rising powers, and in particular Brazil, aspire to, how will that change the role of the established powers
 - How can cooperation between established and rising powers be fostered
- Admiral Carlos Augusto de Sousa, Ministry of Defense, Brazil
 - Ulrich Schlie, German Federal Ministry of Defense, Germany

11:00 Panel 1 - “Brazilian and European Perspectives on the Global Security Order”

- What are the main elements of the Global Security Order and are they suitable for the 21st century?
 - What are the main threats to global order and stability?
 - What are common interests of rising and established powers, and how should they cooperate?
- Rodrigo Baena Soares, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Brazil
 - Roland Schäfer, European External Action Service, EEAS, Director for Latin America
 - Alfredo Valladão, Institut d'études politiques de Paris
 - Peter Roell, Institute for Strategic, Political, Security and Economic Consultancy
- Moderator: Patrick Keller, Konrad Adenauer Foundation

13:00 Lunch (hosted)

14:30 Panel 2 - “Security and Cooperation in the South Atlantic”

- The perils inherent in the lack of governance in the South Atlantic
- The role of transatlantic powers in the region and the state of affairs of African-Brazilian cooperation
- Brazilian aspirations versus Brazilian capacities / capabilities

- Adriana Abdenur, BRICS Policy Center
- Ian Lesser, German Marshall Fund
- Brooke Windsor-Smith, NATO Defense College
- Mashudu Godfrey Ramuhala, South African Ministry of Defense

Moderator: Alexandre Galante, Revista Forças de Defesa

14:30 Panel 3 - “The Imperatives and Hazards of Interventions: Libya, Mali and Syria”

- Intervention, a legitimate tool of statecraft or transgression of international law
- The need for stability versus the sanctity of sovereignty
- European and Brazilian perspectives on armed interventions and the role of RTP and RWP

- Kai Michael Kenkel, Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro
- Michel Foucher, Advisor to the Foreign Minister and Head of the Policy Planning Staff, France
- Antonio Jorge Ramalho, Brazilian Ministry of Defense
- Cheickna Keita, Ambassador of Mali to Brazil

Moderator: Humberto Saccomandi, Valor Econômico

16:15 Coffee Break

16:45 Panel 4 - “Security through Development: Shared Interests, Mutual Cooperation”

- Development as the prerequisite for sustainable security
- The Comprehensive Approach in Practice: Development as part of crisis prevention, crisis management, and post-crisis reconstruction
- Development policy as economic strategy

- Antonio Carlos Mendes Thame, Congressman, Brazil
- Admiral Jean Dufourcq, Associate Researcher at IRSEM, France
- André de Mello e Souza, Brazilian Institute for Applied Economic Research
- Bernt Berger, Institute for Security and Development Policy

Moderator: Jens Glüsing, Der Spiegel

18:30

Closing Remarks

- Ana Paula Zacarias, Ambassador, Head of the Delegation of the European Union in Brazil, EU
- Marcos Castrioto de Azambuja, Ambassador, Member of the Board of Trustees of the Brazilian Center for International Relations (CEBRI), Brazil
- Felix Dane, Representative of the Konrad Adenauer Foundation (KAS) in Brazil, Germany

19:00

Reception