

XIII Forte de Copacabana Conference International Security

Might and Right in World Politics

October 14th
Rio de Janeiro

Organisers

Konrad
Adenauer
Stiftung

Supported by

União Europeia

REGISTRATION

09:00

WELCOME

09:30

Jan Woischnik Representative of the Konrad Adenauer Foundation to Brazil
João Gomes Cravinho Ambassador, Head of the Delegation of the European Union to Brazil
Roberto Abdenur Ambassador, Member of the Board of Trustees of the Brazilian Center for International Relations

10:00 KEYNOTE SPEECH

MIGHT AND RIGHT IN WORLD POLITICS

Raul Jungmann Minister of Defense, Brazil

11:00 PANEL 1

WORLD POLITICS OF SECURITY: THE BALANCE OF LAW AND FORCE

How do Might and Right relate to each other in world politics? How do Europe and Brazil position themselves in regard to the application of force in world politics? How does International Law condition the struggle against terrorist actors such as the so-called Islamic State? Is the current legal underpinning of world order adequate for a changing world political landscape, or does the proliferation of conflicts signal a need for further reform?

Introductory Speech

Gelson Fonseca Jr. Ambassador, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Brazil

Alfredo Valladão Sciences Po, France
Franziska Stahl EU CSDP Mission EUCAP Sahel, Mali
Jens Bartelsson Lund University, Sweden

Moderator: Matias Spektor Getulio Vargas Foundation, Brazil

LUNCH

12:30

14:30 PANEL 2

BRAZILIAN AND EUROPEAN VIEWS ON DEFENSE AND GEO-ECONOMICS

What are the expectations from the new Brazilian and European Defense Strategies? What are the correlations of both world views? How could both regions increment their presence and approach in international conflict situations? How do new trends in global geo-economics affect both Security Agendas, in terms of substance, partnerships and actions?

Introductory Speech

Braz Baracuh Neto Counselor, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Brazil

Susanne Gratius Autonomous University of Madrid, Spain

Sven Biscop Egmont Institute, Belgium

Renato Galvão Flóres Jr. Getulio Vargas Foundation, Brazil

Moderator

Patrick Keller Konrad Adenauer Foundation, Germany

COFFEE BREAK

16:15

16:45 PANEL 3

RESTORING PEACE TO NATIONS IN CONFLICT: VIEWS FROM EUROPE AND LATIN AMERICA

What could be the implications of the Colombian case for the region and other struggles in the world in terms of conflict mediation and mitigation? What are the general lessons from the peace process in the Balkans region?

Introductory Speech

Eamon Gilmore EU Special Envoy to the Colombian Peace Process

Antonio Ruy de Almeida Silva Rear Admiral, Brazilian War College, Brazil

Amna Popovac Women Waging Peace Network, Bosnia and Herzegovina

Mariano Aguirre Norwegian Center for Conflict Resolution, Norway

Moderator: Antonio Jorge Ramalho South American School of Defense, Ecuador

CLOSING REMARKS

18:30

Roberto Abdenur Ambassador, Member of the Board of Trustees of the Brazilian Center for International Relations
João Gomes Cravinho Ambassador, Head of the Delegation of the European Union to Brazil
Jan Woischnik Representative of the Konrad Adenauer Foundation to Brazil

19:00 RECEPTION

